How to Buy Your Own Home

Unit 4: Lesson 2: Planning for monthly expenses in your new home

Thinking through writing

When you move into a new home, there will be many things you will want to buy to make the house feel like your home. Most people cannot afford to buy everything they need at first. They have to set priorities. Write two or three paragraphs about what would be your priorities when you move into your own home.

